

Apply for Non-Immigration Visa Procedure

Contact the information counter to pick up a queue card.

Submit your passport and other related documents to the officer.

Pay the fee and fine in case of overstay.

Meet with the officer to receive stamp and approval hearing, except

- for retirement visas
- when the applicant has hold Thai citizenship before
- for business class A
- for visas special cases

(If making a statement is required, it takes approx. 40 min.)

Collect your passport.

On the appointed day and time, please present your passport to the officer in person. There is charge for this stage.